Nestled on the fairway of the picturesque Byron Bay Golf Course resides this spacious east facing townhouse.

Beautifully maintained and presented, this naturally light filled two bedroom home offers plenty of space and privacy.

Both bedrooms are set on the upper level and have built in robes and access to the main bathroom.

The first floor level features a spacious open plan kitchen, dining and lounge with access onto a gorgeous deck with views looking north over the golf course. There is also a very private rear patio, perfect for outdoor dining.

The kitchen has stainless steel appliances including dishwasher. A separate laundry and W/C are also located on this level.

An enormous tandem double lock up garage with remote control plus extra storage space complete this beautifully appointed home.

This is such a quiet area with easy access via a bike path to parks, shops, golf club, schools and the beach. There is direct access from this property to walk to the Golf Club for dinner or a round of golf.

This is a rare opportunity to purchase in this quality position and such generously sized home in this price range. A must to view!
